

SCORER TRAINING COURSES

None known

The UK umpire & scorer 'training season' tends to be from October to March annually.

This page will be updated whenever information is received on new course dates and as courses are completed.

If you want details of your course to appear on this page email the details to notchers@btinternet.com

If you are trying to locate a course near to where you live or work but cannot find the information you need above, then:

- UK readers are advised to contact their County Cricket Board for information on courses in their area.
- European readers are advised to contact ICC Europe
- Other readers are advised to contact their local or national cricket organisation.

Still unable to find a course near you?

- Then consider a correspondence course - details can be found on the back page of Notchers' News. Contact cathy.rawson@btinternet.com